

Job Posting – Mechanic

Tentative Start Date – January 2023
Downhole Chemical Solutions, LLC

Summary

Downhole Chemical Solutions (DCS) is seeking a mechanic in Midland, TX to provide support for DCS's field operations, and to assist in the growth of their completions chemical program. The ideal candidate will be highly self-motivated, and eager to grow.

Location & Start Date

- Midland, TX
- Tentative Start Date January 2023

Requirements

- Strong troubleshooting skills, and ability to work under pressure in oilfield environments
- Willingness to relocate to Midland, TX area and travel as needed to support DCS's operations in East, West, and South Texas
- Must be self-motivated, and able to work autonomously alongside field personnel and engineers, as well as within a team-based setting
- Ability to work in a fast-paced, dynamic work environment

Experience

- 1-2 years in a mechanic related field OR a 2-year degree in a related field from a technical college

Desired Skills

- Diesel mechanic certification
- A/C technician certification (608 or 609)
- Strong communication skills
- Computer literacy
- Working understanding of frac operations

Benefits

- $30 - $40 per hour, dependent on experience and training
- 100% employer-paid Medical, Dental, Vision individual insurance premiums
- 401K
- Company truck

Company Culture

- Fast-paced, team-oriented work environment
- Strong emphasis on innovation in both technology and operations
- Highly autonomous work schedule

